MEDIA INFORMATION

MEDIA INFORMATION
The Oklahoma State Athletics Communications Office is ready to assist the media in any way possible. We will gladly fulfill all reasonable requests. Any additional information is available by contacting the athletics communications office at (405) 744-7714.

MEDIA CREDENTIALS
To obtain media credentials for Oklahoma State home games, contact Wade McWhorter by Tuesday at 5 p.m. with your request. All members of the media may enter Neal Patterson Stadium via the west entrance one hour prior to the game. Credentialed members will receive a wristband prior to entering the complex.

PARKING
Parking is available in the lots to the south and west of Patterson Stadium. Parking is first-come, first-served.

PHOTOGRAPHER ACCESS
Photographers are limited to the areas on the east, north and south sides of the field at Neal Patterson Stadium.

PRESS SERVICES
Power and internet access will available to media members in the pressbox at Patterson Stadium. Statistics will be available at the conclusion of the game. Please contact the OSU Athletics Communications office for any specific needs.

INTERVIEW REQUESTS
Coaches and players will be available for interviews throughout the season every Tuesday from 3-3:45 p.m. at Neal Patterson Stadium. Specific player requests for interviews should be made through Wade McWhorter in the Athletics Communications office at least 48 hours in advance. Due to NCAA legislation, the only time to meet with the players on a one-on-one basis will be during that week's designated interview time; no player interviews will be given during practice.

POSTGAME INTERVIEWS
OSU players and coaches will be available at the conclusion of each game following a cooling-off period. Interviews will be held on the field at Neal Patterson Stadium.

MEDIA SERVICES
Weekly press releases, which include individual and team statistics, player and team notes and information on upcoming games, will be available at the beginning of each game.

COWGIRLS ON THE WEB/SOCIAL MEDIA

BIG 12 CONFERENCE

THE BIG 12 CONFERENCE

The Big 12 enters its 28th year as one of the nation's premier athletic conferences under the direction of Commissioner Brett Yormark. In his brief time at the helm, Yormark has elevated the Conference to new heights, placing an emphasis on marketing, brand building and storytelling that has resonated across the college athletics landscape.

The Big 12 is comprised of 14 institutions after welcoming BYU, UCF, Cincinnati and Houston on July 1, 2023. TCU and West Virginia were the first new additions since inception when they joined the league on July 1, 2012. Baylor, Iowa State, Kansas, Kansas State, Oklahoma, Oklahoma State, Texas and Texas Tech are legacy members.

In the first year of his tenure, Yormark executed a media rights deal with ESPN and Fox that will run through 2030-31 while leading a revamp of the Big 12 Football and Basketball Championships that resulted in revenue and digital engagement highs. He has taken an innovative approach to ensure the Conference resides in places it has never been before including creating the first Big 12 Business Advisory Board. Other highlights are executing a partnership with the National Football League to operate a conference-wide Pro Day, teaming up with New York City Parks Department for a summer activation at historic Rucker Park, and bringing celebrity talent such as Fat Joe, Ashanti, Shaq and DJ Khaled into the Big 12 marketing fold. "Big 12 Homecoming" will debut during the 2023 football season at the four new members' campuses with additional conference members featured in future seasons.

The 2022-23 academic year saw the Conference reach new frontiers with TCU becoming the first league school to reach the College Football Playoff National Championship game. Texas captured the NCAA Women's Volleyball title as well as the Women's Outdoor Track & Field national championship. Oklahoma earned its second straight NCAA Women's Gymnastics trophy and was crowned Women's College World Series champions for the third consecutive season. NCAA Championship runner-up finishes were notched by Oklahoma State Men's Cross Country, Texas Women's Swimming & Diving and UT Women's Indoor Track & Field. NCAA individual titles were collected by 23 student-athletes. The Big 12 tied its own record as the only league to place 70 percent of men's basketball teams in the NCAA Championship and 80 percent of football squads in bowl games in the same academic year, also accomplishing the feat in 2017-18.

The Big 12 office is located in Irving, Texas.

Key Highlights

- Home of 81 NCAA team titles and 742 individual national championships (As of July 1, 2023).
- Big 12 institutions create a league that encompasses eight states, three time zones and a combined population of over 79.3 million.
- The league sponsors 23 sports. Men's squads include baseball, basketball, cross country, football, golf, indoor track & field, outdoor track & field, swimming & diving, tennis and wrestling. Women's teams are fielded in basketball, cross country, equestrian, golf, gymnastics, indoor track & field, outdoor track & field, rowing, soccer, softball, swimming & diving, tennis and volleyball.
- The Conference currently conducts postseason championships for 22 of its 23 sports.
- Entering the 2023-24 academic year, the Big 12 has over 800 Academic All-America recipients.
- National academic accolades have always been strong in the Big 12. Charlie Kolar (Iowa State) was the recipient of the 2021 William V. Campbell Trophy, known as the Academic Heisman. He is the Big 12's fifth honoree since 2000. Since 1996, the Big 12 has 14 recipients of the NCAA Today's Top 10 award. This prestigious honor recognizes former student-athletes for their success on the fields and courts, in the classroom and in the community. In the last 13 seasons, 27 student-athletes were recipients of the NCAA Elite 90 award, including Meilin Sullivan (Oklahoma gymnastics) and Luke Savage (TCU baseball) in 2023.
- Big 12 Commissioner Brett Yormark announced the formation of a Business Advisory Board to collaborate and help co-author the Conference's business strategy. The Board is comprised of some of the most successful leaders from a variety of fields – entertainment, finance, consumer brands, technology, media and more – that bring a wealth of knowledge and expertise in building global brands and dynamic businesses.

Colin Carmichael

Head Coach | 28th season at OSU
South Alabama, 1993

If you are looking for a blueprint of how to build a collegiate soccer program into a national contender, Oklahoma State head coach Colin Carmichael would be a good place to start.

Carmichael has been at OSU since the inception of the women's soccer program in the fall of 1996, and he continues to help lead Cowgirl soccer to new heights and a spot among the nation's elite.

As the program enters its 28th season in 2023, the Cowgirls are looking to continue their success in what will mark Carmichael's 19th year as head coach.

Carmichael, who served as OSU's co-head coach with Karen Hancock during the 2005 and 2006 seasons, is 239-97-50 during his 18-year tenure as the Cowgirls' head coach, compiling a winning percentage of .684. He has led the Cowgirls to 12 appearances in the NCAA Women's Soccer Championship, including six straight from 2006-11, and after advancing to the second round of the NCAA tourney four-straight years, the Cowgirls made back-to-back trips to the Elite Eight in 2010 and 2011.

The Cowgirls have also been a dominant force in the Big 12 Conference under Carmichael, capturing six league titles, including four in a row from 2008-11. OSU won the regular season title in 2008, captured the Big 12 Soccer Championship title in 2009 and 2010 and claimed another regular season championship in 2011. The Cowgirls were crowned regular season conference champions again in 2017 and again in 2019.

During the COVID-19 pandemic shortened 2020-21 season, Carmichael guided the Cowgirls to a 13-3-2 record that included a return to the NCAA Championship Sweet 16 for the third time in program history. OSU finished the season No. 14 in the final United Soccer Coaches national rankings.

That '20-'21 season also saw OSU claim five All-Big 12 performers for the second consecutive season, and Kim Rodriguez became the fourth Cowgirl to earn All-America honors in multiple seasons.

In 2019, Carmichael earned Big 12 Coach of the Year honors for a conference-record sixth time, and he and his staff were also honored as the United Soccer Coaches South Region Staff of the Year for the second time in three seasons after OSU posted a 16-3-3 record and captured the Big 12 regular season championship by going 7-1-1 in league play.

Carmichael notched his 200th career win as OSU's head coach with the Cowgirls' 2-0 win at Texas on Oct. 11, 2019. Other highlights from the '19 season include:

- Kim Rodriguez became the fifth All-American in program history;
- The Cowgirls had five All-Big 12 honorees, the second-highest total in program history, including three first teamers;
- The 16 wins tied for the fifth most in a season in OSU history, and the Cowgirls were undefeated at home (10-0-1);
- OSU finished the season ranked as high as 13th in the final national polls.

The 2017 season saw OSU tie a program record with eight conference wins as they finished 8-1-0 in Big 12 play to earn the league crown. The Cowgirls advanced to the second round of the NCAA Women's Soccer Championship for the first time since 2011 and finished with a 16-4-3 record. They led the Big 12 in goals and points while ranking second in assists, and the program also claimed the fourth All-American in its history in Haley Woodard, a junior forward who became the second-straight Cowgirl to earn Big 12 Offensive Player of the Year honors.

OSU overcame numerous injuries to key players in 2014 and bounced back from an 0-6-0 start to the season to earn an NCAA tourney bid. The Cowgirls finished second league play at 5-2-1 and placed four players on the All-Big 12 team.

In 2013, OSU earned its eighth NCAA Tournament berth after a strong late-season run that saw the Cowgirls advance to the finals of the Big 12 Soccer Championship, their fourth appearance in the conference tourney title game under Carmichael.

The 2011 campaign ranks as the best in program history as OSU won a school record 22 games, highlighted by a record 21-game unbeaten streak. During that span, the Cowgirls were 19-0-2 and had a stretch in which they notched 15 consecutive wins.

The run to the Big 12 championship saw OSU finish 6-0-2 in league play. After falling in the title game of the conference tourney, the Cowgirls reeled off three-straight wins in the NCAA Championship before falling to top-ranked and eventual national champion Stanford.

Carmichael earned Big 12 Coach of the Year honors for the fourth time in 2011, and the Cowgirls saw a program-record seven players earn All-Big 12 status, including Melinda Mercado being named the league's Defensive Player of the Year for the second-straight year.

Mercado was part of a senior class that went 75-14-10 (.808) during their careers, placing them as the fourth-winningest senior class in the NCAA in 2011, and she was also one of two Cowgirls to earn All-American honors, along with AD Franch.

The year culminated with OSU finishing fifth in the final national rankings for the second-straight year.

The 2010 season saw OSU set a school record for wins as they finished 20-4-2, which also earned the Cowgirls their highest-ever final ranking in the national polls at No. 5 in the NSCAA poll.

In a year that saw OSU tie a school record with a 13-game unbeaten streak and lead the Big 12 in goals and goals against average, Carmichael was named the 2010 Big 12 Conference Co-Coach of the Year and the NSCAA/Mondo Central Region Coach of the Year.

OSU led the Big 12 with five all-conference performers in 2010, including four first teamers, and a pair of Cowgirls — AD Franch and Melinda Mercado — earned All-America status.

In 2009, the Cowgirls peaked at just the right time. Carmichael's squad ended the season on a 10-game unbeaten streak, with eight wins and two ties. During that stretch, OSU claimed the second Big 12 Soccer Championship title in school history and advanced to the second round of the NCAA Tournament.

After ending the regular season with five-straight wins, OSU entered the '09 Big 12 tourney as the fifth seed. The Cowgirls proceeded to knock off Nebraska, top-seeded Missouri and second-seeded Texas A&M en route to the title. OSU had lost to each of those teams during the regular season.

In the opening round of the NCAA Women's Soccer Championship, OSU battled USC to a scoreless draw but advanced by winning a penalty-kick shootout for the first time in school history. The Cowgirls were also forced into a shootout against 11th-ranked Santa Clara but failed to advance, ending their season with a 15-7-2 record.

OSU led the Big 12 in 2009 with three All-Big 12 First Team selections, including record-setting goalkeeper AD Franch, who was also named a Freshman All-American.

The 2008 season was record setting on a number of levels. The Cowgirls finished 18-1-4, setting a school record for wins, and claimed the program's first-ever Big 12 Conference regular season championship.

The Cowgirls finished 13th in the final national polls after being ranked as high as No. 7 during the regular season. OSU's .870 winning percentage ranked sixth in the country.

OSU's offensive attack was among the nation's best as the Cowgirls led the NCAA in scoring offense at 3.22 goals per game and finished third nationally with 74 goals. The Cowgirls set single-season school records for goals and points.

Carmichael was named the 2008 Big 12 Conference Coach of the Year and also claimed 2008 Central Regional Coach of the Year honors. A program record six Cowgirls were honored with Big 12 postseason awards, including first-team all-conference performers Kasey Langdon and Yolanda Odenyo, who was also named the Big 12 Offensive Player of the Year.

In 2007, OSU finished the season with a 14-6-3 record, the 14 wins marking the third-highest total in program history. Along the way, OSU defeated four teams ranked in the Top 10, including a win over No. 9 San Diego in the first round of the NCAA Tournament and a landmark win against Notre Dame in which the Cowgirls snapped the Fighting Irish's 43-game home unbeaten streak.

Further signs of just how far the program continues to climb are evidenced by the fact that OSU started and finished the season in the national rankings for the first time in school history. The Cowgirls ended the season ranked No. 17 by Soccer Buzz Magazine and 23rd in both the NSCAA/adidas and SoccerTimes.com polls.

OSU also set a program home attendance record with 10,222 fans, an average of 929 fans per game at the Cowgirl Soccer Complex.

Carmichael served as an assistant coach at OSU until he was elevated to associate head coach in 2003 and co-head coach in 2005. In the four seasons following his promotion, the Cowgirls compiled a 54-20-11 record, captured a Big 12 Tournament title, finished second in the Big 12 regular season standings and made the first two trips to the NCAA Tournament in school history.

In 2006, Carmichael helped lead the Cowgirls to their best finish in school history as they went 17-3-3 and finished second in the Big 12 with an 8-1-1 conference mark. OSU earned its highest-ever national ranking as they climbed to as high as No. 7 in the NSCAA polls, and the squad advanced to the NCAA Tournament and defeated UNC-Greensboro for the school's first-ever tournament win.

Carmichael and Hancock were rewarded for their outstanding 2006 campaign by earning the Central Region Coach of the Year award. Soccer Buzz named the coaching tandem runner-up for National Coach of the Year behind North Carolina's Anson Dorrance.

One of the biggest reasons for the program's recent success is the influx of talent that has come to Stillwater as a result of Carmichael's excellent recruiting skills. The Cowgirls continue to bring in some of the top-ranked classes in the Central Region, and in 2005, OSU had the 11th-ranked recruiting class in the nation.

Carmichael's knack for recruiting overseas has been at the forefront of most of those outstanding classes. In 2005, he landed the second-rated international recruit in German native Angelika Feldbacher, and in 2006, top-rated international recruit, Annika Niemeier, signed to play in Stillwater. Carmichael, a native of Airde, Scotland, also helped bring in Swedish native Yolanda Odenyo, who became the first OSU player to earn first-team All-American honors in 2006.

Carmichael also worked on the coaching staff of the Region III Olympic Development team for 15 years. The ODP has seen numerous players go on to play soccer at the collegiate level as well as with the U.S. National Team.

In the spring of 2001, Carmichael was recognized as the U.S. Soccer Association's Region III Coach of the Year and was a finalist for the National Coach of the Year honor.

In 1991, while Carmichael was still an active player at USA, he began his coaching career at St. Paul's Episcopal High School in Mobile, Ala. After his graduation in 1993, he was hired on as an assistant coach at USA, where he assisted with the men's program and also helped to establish the women's program.

While at USA, Carmichael earned a marketing degree, and he received his Master's in physical education in 1996. He currently holds a U.S. Soccer Federation "A" License and a National Soccer Coaches Association of America "Premier" License.

Carmichael resides in Stillwater with his wife, Stacie, and their children, Maggie and Ean.

COACHING STAFF

Justin Elkington

Associate Head Coach | 15th season at OSU
Oral Roberts, 1997

Justin Elkington enters his 15th season on the Oklahoma State coaching staff after having been named an assistant in July 2009. He was elevated to the Cowgirls' associate head coach in July 2012.

Since Elkington's arrival in Stillwater, OSU has compiled a 180-81-37 record (.666) and continued to establish itself as a national power by making nine appearances in the NCAA Women's Soccer Championship. In two of those years, the Cowgirls advanced to the Elite Eight of the tourney and finished No. 5 in the final national rankings.

The Cowgirls have also captured five Big 12 Conference championships since Elkington's arrival, claiming regular season crowns in 2011, 2017 and 2019 and tournament titles in 2009 and 2010.

Elkington was named the 2011 NSCAA Women's College Assistant Coach of the Year for the Midwest Region after helping guide OSU to a school-record 22 wins. In 2017 and 2019, the OSU coaching staff was honored as the United Soccer Coaches South Region Staff of the Year.

A native of Lincoln, England, Elkington spent 10 years as the head coach of the Broken Arrow Soccer Club prior to joining the Cowgirls. While there, he coached and helped develop such future OSU standouts as Siera Strawser, Katie Richardson, Allyson Leggett and Sarah Brown.

"Joining the coaching staff at Oklahoma State gave me an opportunity to coach at a higher level and at a program which has established itself as one of the top collegiate soccer programs in the country," Elkington said. "I'm very familiar with the program's status and its history, and the long-term vision of the program is on par with my own ambition — to coach and win at the highest level."

Elkington had an immediate impact in his first season in Stillwater, helping the Cowgirls to a 15-7-2 mark and a Big 12 Conference tournament championship. OSU also advanced to the second round of the NCAA Tournament for the fourth-straight year. In 2010, OSU enjoyed its most successful season ever with 20 wins, another Big 12 Conference championship and an NCAA Tournament run to the Elite Eight.

Among Elkington's duties at OSU is goalkeeper coach, and he was instrumental in the development of record-setting goalie AD Franch, helping her develop into a three-time All-American and four-time All-Big 12 First Team selection. He also helped Cowgirl Michela Ongaro earn a spot on the 2013 Big 12 All-Newcomer Team as a freshman, and she went on to a career that saw her rank among OSU's all-time leaders in saves, shutouts and goals against average. Another Elkington pupil, Rosa Medina, also finished her career among the Cowgirls' all-time leaders in several statistical categories.

In 2022, under Elkington's tutelage, freshman Jordan Nytes was OSU's first-ever Big 12 Goalkeeper of the Year and an All-Big 12 First Team honoree after recording six shutouts and a 0.67 goals against average in 17 games.

Elkington, who turned the Hurricane Futball Club into one of the premier youth soccer clubs in the region, was named the 2008 Youth Girls Soccer Coach of the Year by the Oklahoma Soccer Association. He has also spent time as a coach in the Oklahoma Olympic Development Program.

"Justin is a tremendous addition to our coaching staff," said OSU head coach Colin Carmichael. "He is a top-class coach and has received the highest level of coaching licenses available in the United States. His dedication to continuing his coaching education has made him one of the most qualified coaches around, and we are fortunate to have him on our staff... His knowledge and ability to teach the game of soccer should help us to build upon our recent success and continue to compete on the national level."

A 1997 graduate of Oral Roberts University, Elkington was a four-year letterman for the Golden Eagles' soccer team. He graduated with a bachelor of science degree in mass media communications, public relations and advertising.

Elkington was a captain of a national championship state soccer team in his native England and also played professional soccer for the Tulsa Roughnecks.

Elkington holds several national licenses from the United States Soccer Federation, including an "A" License, a "Director of Coaching Diploma," a "National Youth License" and a "Goal Keeping License." He also holds a "Premier Diploma" and a Regional "Goal Keeper Diploma" from the National Soccer Coaching Association of America.

Elkington and his wife, Deana, were married in August of 2008, and have a daughter, Jade.

Karen Hancock

Assistant Coach | 28th season at OSU
Tulsa, 1990

Since becoming the first head coach in Oklahoma State soccer history over two decades ago and spending the last 16 as an assistant coach, Karen Hancock has helped build the Cowgirl soccer program into a force in the Big 12 Conference and on the national scene.

Oklahoma State hired Hancock on Feb. 1, 1996, to begin a new era in the long tradition of sports at OSU, and she piloted the Cowgirls to a 10-7-2 record in their inaugural campaign.

Following the season, OSU received recognition as one of the top 10 first-year soccer programs in the nation. The Cowgirls competed with 31 other Division I schools in 1996 to earn this honor from Soccer Buzz Magazine.

Hancock spent the next 10 seasons as OSU's head coach. She guided the Cowgirls to an 110-89-19 record and helped lead the program into the national spotlight as represented by the Cowgirls' first ever NCAA Tournament win in 2006. OSU finished the year with a school-record 17 wins and climbed as high as No. 7 in the national polls. Their 8-1-1 Big 12 regular season mark placed them second in the conference. Hancock also registered her 100th win at Oklahoma State with a 1-0 home victory over Kansas on Sept. 22, 2006.

Hancock, along with co-head coach Colin Carmichael, earned Big 12 Coach of the Year honors and Central Region Coach of the Year accolades in 2006. The pair was also runner-up for National Coach of the Year honors. Hancock was also the Big 12 Co-Coach of the Year in 2002.

In 2017, Hancock was part of an OSU coaching staff that was honored as the United Soccer Coaches South Region Staff of the Year after the Cowgirls claimed the Big 12 regular season championship and finished with 16 wins.

Hancock played collegiate soccer at the University of Tulsa, where she was a four-year starter between 1987 and 1990. She served as the team captain for three seasons and was named TU's Most Inspirational Player in 1989 and 1990. Also in 1990, Hancock was awarded the Best Defensive Player of the Year Award.

Upon graduating from TU, Hancock began her coaching career at Bishop Kelley High School in Tulsa, Okla. She left Bishop Kelley in 1991 to become the assistant coach at Arkansas-Little Rock, and in 1994, she left UALR and accepted the head coaching job at the South Alabama.

Starting the women's soccer program from scratch at South Alabama, she was able to amass a record of 21-13-2 in the program's first two years. USA compiled a record of 11-6 in its first season of competition under Hancock. The second year was even better as the Jaguars went 10-7-2 and were recognized as the eighth best team in the Central Region.

A native of Tulsa, Okla., Coach Hancock earned a B.S. degree in speech pathology from the University of Tulsa in 1990 and a master's degree in secondary education from Arkansas-Little Rock in 1994. She holds a USSF "B" Coaching License.

The former Karen Horstman and her husband, the late Will Hancock, have a daughter, Andrea, who was born on November 16, 2000.

COACHING STAFF

Dustin Stein

Assistant Coach | 1st season at OSU
Southwestern Oklahoma State, 2010

Dustin Stein joined the Oklahoma State staff as an assistant coach in July 2023.

Stein joins the Cowgirls after serving five seasons on the staff at Pittsburgh and helping lead the Panthers' program to new heights.

"We are very excited to add Dustin to our staff. I've known Dustin and his family for many years; he grew up in Oklahoma, and we are delighted he is heading back home," said OSU head coach Colin Carmichael. "Dustin has proven to be a wonderful evaluator of talent, and his recruiting experience, both nationally and internationally, will help us continue to add quality student-athletes to our team.

"Dustin's values and work ethic aligns very well with our staff, and our players will enjoy working with him on a daily basis. I can't wait to welcome Dustin and his family to Stillwater."

Stein is a 15-year coaching veteran at the high school, collegiate and professional levels.

"To say my family and I are excited to be joining the OSU Cowgirl Soccer family is an understatement," Stein said. "To be able to return to Oklahoma where I grew up and to work alongside Coach Carmichael is a dream come true. I can't wait to share my experiences and help OSU compete for Big 12 championships."

Stein was integral in helping bring some of the top recruiting classes in history to the Pitt program, and those players led to a strong turnaround for the Panthers.

In 2019, Pitt snapped a three-year winless streak in ACC play, and the following season saw the Panthers post a school-record 11 wins and earn its first ever national ranking.

Pitt posted a second-straight 11-win season in 2021 while outscoring their opponents by a 41-22 margin.

Last season, Pitt went 14-5-3, set a school record with 47 goals and earned the first NCAA Tournament berth in program history. The Panthers would advance to the NCAA Sweet 16 and came in at No. 12 in the final national rankings.

Prior to his tenure at Pitt, Stein was head coach at Eastfield College and became the winningest coach in program history in his five seasons.

Over Stein's final three seasons, Eastfield went 42-12-3 and was among the top 10 NJCAA programs. In 2015, he was named the NJCAA Region 5 Division 3 Coach of the Year as well as the Metro Athletic Conference Coach of the Year.

During his tenure at Eastfield, Stein coached two All-Americans, two Region MVPs and 28 all-conference honorees.

Stein earned a degree in athletic training with a minor in allied health from Southwestern Oklahoma State in 2010 and a master's in educational technology leadership from Louisiana-Monroe in 2012.

Stein's coaching career began in the high school ranks in 2008 as the boys' head coach at Weatherford High School, and he served as an assistant at Neville High School for two seasons.

Stein was a graduate assistant coach on the Louisiana-Monroe coaching staff from 2010-12 and also served as associate head coach for FC Dallas of the WPSL for two years.

Stein and his wife, Alyssa, have a son, Brecken, and a daughter, Rylan.

COACHING STAFF

Grace Yochum

Player Development Coordinator | 1st season at OSU
Oklahoma State, 2021

Oklahoma State soccer has added Grace Yochum to its staff as the program's player development coordinator.

A former standout student-athlete for the Cowgirls, Yochum will be responsible for creating and delivering programs to support and develop life skills for the Cowgirls while also working closely with academic services and the coaching staff to ensure success on and off the field.

"I am super excited to work with the Oklahoma State soccer program in this new role," Yochum said. "This university has given me so much, and I'm looking forward to giving back and working with our fantastic student-athletes and helping them develop in all areas of their college life. Special thanks to Chad Weiberg, Reid Sigmon and Colin Carmichael for giving me this opportunity, and I can't wait to get started!"

Yochum established herself as the most prolific scorer in Oklahoma State soccer history during her five-year career with the Cowgirls, which ended after the 2022 season. A native of Houston, Texas, Yochum capped her career by earning All-America honors in '22, becoming the sixth player in program history to achieve that feat.

"I could not think of a better person than Grace Yochum to be our first player development coordinator, and I'm so excited to welcome her to our staff," Carmichael said. "Grace has been the face of our program for the past couple of years and epitomizes what it means to be a Cowgirl.

"Our current players will be able to tap into and learn from Grace's experiences at OSU, and I can't wait for her to being influencing our student-athletes in a positive manner."

During her senior season with the Cowgirls, Yochum set program records for career goals with 41 and also career points with 91; both of those records had stood since 2008. Yochum set the goals record with a pair of scores against Stephen F. Austin and eclipsed the points mark with her goal vs. Iowa State.

Yochum played 86 games in her career and also finished with 21 game-winning goals, including leading the NCAA in that category in 2021 when she netted eight en route to posting a career-high 12 goals. She collected All-Big 12 honors four times in her career, one of only six Cowgirls to ever earn that status, and she is one of four OSU players to be named All-Big 12 First Team three times.

In January 2023, Yochum became the second-highest NWSL Draft pick from OSU when she was selected in the second round with the 14th overall pick by the Chicago Red Stars.

Yochum was named a United Coaches Scholar All-America First Team in 2022, becoming just the fifth first-team Academic All-American in program history. Also a four-time Academic All-Big 12 performer, Yochum graduated with a degree in education and a minor in coaching science from OSU in May 2021.

Hayden Hollinger

Analyst | 2nd season at OSU
St. Mary's, 2018

Oklahoma State head coach Colin Carmichael added Hayden Hollinger to his staff as a volunteer assistant in June 2022, and he began serving as a tactical analyst in 2023.

Hollinger spent the 2021 season on the coaching staff at Kentucky, helping lead the Wildcats to seven wins as a volunteer assistant.

Prior to his tenure at UK, Hollinger served as a graduate assistant coach at The Citadel in 2019 and 2020 and helped the Bulldogs to two of the most successful statistical seasons in program history.

Hollinger has also worked as an academy coach and tournament director with Global Premier Soccer, where he was involved with the James Island Youth Soccer Club for two years.

A native of Scotland, Hollinger completed his collegiate soccer career at St. Mary's University in San Antonio, where he was a two-year starter at center back and a team captain as a senior. In his first two collegiate seasons, he helped lead Hartwick College to back-to-back Sunbelt Conference titles and NCAA Tournament appearances.

Hollinger earned his degree in international relations from St. Mary's in 2018 and received his MBA at The Citadel in 2021. He received a USSF D License in 2021.

COACHING STAFF

Mallory Fowlkes

Strength & Conditioning | 13th season at OSU
Baylor, 2010

Entering her 10th season as the full-time strength and conditioning coach for Cowgirl Soccer and 13th season at Oklahoma State is Mallory Fowlkes.

Fowlkes began her time at OSU in 2010 as a graduate assistant working with the Cowgirl Equestrian program and also assisting with the soccer, softball and wrestling teams.

In 2013, Fowlkes took over strength and conditioning duties for Cowgirl Soccer on a full-time basis. During her tenure, the Cowgirls have made five appearances in the NCAA Women's Soccer Championship and claimed a pair of Big 12 Conference regular season titles.

In 2017 and again in 2019, Fowlkes was part of Cowgirl Soccer coaching staffs that were honored as the United Soccer Coaches South Region Staff of the Year.

A native of Bulverde, Texas, Fowlkes attended Baylor University and was a member of the track and field team from 2006-09, where she competed in the heptathlon. She was also on the BU softball team in 2009 and 2010.

Fowlkes graduated from Baylor with a degree in exercise physiology in May 2010 and earned a master's degree in health and human performance/health promotion from Oklahoma State in 2012.

Fowlkes and her husband, Antonio, were married in 2014, and welcomed a son, Leo, in 2022.

2022 REVIEW

2022 SEASON IN REVIEW

Oklahoma State's 2022 season saw the Cowgirls post an 11-4-4 record.

The Cowgirls began the season with three consecutive wins, opening with a road win at Omaha before a 4-0 victory in their home opener against Missouri State.

Up next, OSU took on in-state foe Tulsa and picked up a 1-0 victory. That match was the first of five-straight road contests for the Cowgirls.

Following the win over TU, the Cowgirls traveled to Florida, where they battled Florida Atlantic to a scoreless draw before suffering their first loss of the season, a 2-1 setback to Miami.

The Cowgirls got back in the win column with a pair of blowout wins, topping Stephen F. Austin, 5-0, in a game that saw Grace Yochum set a program record with her 36th career goal as she found the back of the net twice. Yochum would add two more goals in the next contest, a 3-0 victory at Central Arkansas.

OSU capped its non-conference slate with a pair of home wins, besting Mercer 3-1 before topping 25th-ranked Brown, 2-0, as Olyvia Dowell netted both goals in the victory.

The Cowgirls opened Big 12 Conference play on the road and emerged with a pair of wins. OSU opened with a 2-0 triumph at Kansas and followed that up with a 1-0 win at Kansas State as Gracie Bindbeutel found the back of the net in the fifth minute.

OSU's next two matches resulted in draws, with a home game against Texas Tech finishing 1-1 before a road contest against Bedlam-rival Oklahoma ended in an identical score.

After a 3-0 loss to 10th-ranked TCU at home, OSU got back in the win column when Yochum converted a penalty kick in the 83rd minute to lift the Cowgirls to a 1-0 win over Iowa State.

Following a 1-1 tie against West Virginia in which the Mountaineers scored the equalizer with just over seven minutes remaining, OSU fell short against No. 18 Texas, dropping a 2-1 game.

OSU closed out the regular season with a road game at Baylor and emerged victorious thanks to Megan Haines' score in the 66th minute that proved to be the only goal of the match.

With a 4-2-3 mark, OSU entered the Big 12 Championship as the No. 5 seed. The Cowgirls would drop a 2-1 contest to West Virginia in what proved to be their final game of the season.

Midfielder Yolanda Odenyo is one of the most decorated players in Oklahoma State soccer history and became Cowgirl soccer's first All-American in 2006. Odenyo would go on to earn All-America status in each of her final three seasons in an OSU uniform.

In 2006, Odenyo was named a first-team All-American by both the NSCAA/adidas and Soccer Buzz Magazine after leading OSU to its highest-ever national ranking (No. 7) and a school-record 17 wins, including the first NCAA Tournament victory in Cowgirl soccer history. She was also named the 2006 Big 12 Conference Co-Player of the Year and the Central Region Player of the Year after recording five goals and eight assists.

As a junior in 2007, Odenyo was named a second-team All-American by Soccer Buzz after finishing the season with seven goals and three assists. Soccer Buzz also named her one of its 14 player of the year finalists.

Odenyo capped her career with the best season ever by a Cowgirl in 2008. She set OSU single-season records with 16 goals and 37 points, both of which also led the Big 12. She also set a school record by scoring goals in seven consecutive games and was named the Big 12 Offensive Player of the Year.

Following her senior season, Odenyo was named an All-American by four different outlets, including earning a spot on the first team of three of those. She was a finalist for two player of the year awards and was one of 15 semifinalists for the Hermann Trophy, given to the nation's top collegiate player.

Goalkeeper AD Franch was a three-time All-American for the Cowgirls, earning multiple honors in 2010, 2011 and 2012.

Franch rewrote the OSU soccer record books during her four seasons in Stillwater. Her 38 career shutouts are a program best and rank 22nd in NCAA history, while her 8,064:02 in goal is also the most by a Cowgirl and 15th all time in the NCAA. She also finished with 325 career saves and a 0.69 goals against average.

Franch capped her career with a senior season that included six shutouts and 79 saves as she became the first Cowgirl in history to be a two-time NSCAA first-team All-American. She was also named to the Soccer America MVPs Second Team.

As a junior in 2011, Franch recorded an OSU single-season record 12 shutouts en route to a pair of first-team All-America honors from the NSCAA and Soccer America. With her in goal, the Cowgirls led the NCAA in shutouts and goals against average, and she ranked second nationally in GAA (0.35) and shutout percentage (0.92).

Franch earned multiple All-America honors for the first time as a sophomore in 2010 as she was named to the NSCAA/Performance Subaru All-America Second Team and was also honored as a member of the TopDrawerSoccer.com Team of the Season First Team and with a spot on the Soccer America MVPs First Team. She led the Big 12 with nine shutouts and ranked second in goals against average (0.73) and save percentage (.826).

COWGIRL ALL-AMERICANS

MELINDA MERCADO

DEFENDER
Sapulpa, Okla.

- 2010 NSCAA Performance Subaru (second team)
- 2010 TopDrawerSoccer.com (third team)
- 2011 NSCAA (first team)

Defender Melinda Mercado anchored some of the NCAA's top defenses during her Oklahoma State career and finished as a two-time All-American.

As a senior in 2011, Mercado helped lead a defense that led the NCAA in goals against average (0.337) and shutouts (18) as the Cowgirls recorded a school-record 22 wins and advanced to their second-straight NCAA Elite Eight. For her efforts, she was named a first-team All-American by the NSCAA.

OSU was one of the NCAA's top defensive teams in 2010 in large part due to Mercado, and she was named to the NSCAA All-America Second Team and earned a spot on the TopDrawerSoccer.com Team of the Season Third Team.

From her center back spot, Mercado led an OSU defensive unit that led the Big 12 Conference in goals against average at 0.79. The Cowgirls also ranked second in goals allowed (21) and shutouts (10).

Mercado was named the Big 12 Conference Defensive Player of the Year and was a first-team all-conference pick. She also captured Defensive MVP honors at the Big 12 Soccer Championship for the second consecutive year. Additionally, she was named to the NSCAA All-Central Region First Team.

With Mercado anchoring the defense, OSU earned a No. 5 national ranking in the final polls after the Cowgirls advanced to the Elite Eight of the NCAA Women's Soccer Championship, captured their third-straight conference title and recorded a program-record 20 wins.

HALEY WOODARD

FORWARD
Norman, Okla.

- 2017 United Soccer Coaches (third team)

Woodard became the fourth All-American in program history when she earned United Soccer Coaches third team honors following her junior season in 2017.

Woodard's All-America campaign saw her lead the Cowgirls with eight goals while also adding three assists as she helped OSU to a 16-4-3 record, a Big 12 regular season championship and an appearance in the second round of the NCAA Women's Soccer Championship.

Named the Big 12 Offensive Player of the Year and an All-Big 12 First Team selection, Woodard led the Big 12 with four goals and nine points in conference-only games.

COWGIRL ALL-AMERICANS

KIM RODRIGUEZ

DEFENDER
Porter, Texas

- 2019 United Soccer Coaches Second Team
- 2020-21 United Soccer Coaches Second Team
- 2020-21 TopDrawerSoccer.com (first team)

Kim Rodriguez became the fifth All-American in OSU soccer history in 2019 when she was named to the United Soccer Coaches All-America Second Team, and the next season, she became the fourth Cowgirl to earn multiple All-America honors when she was named to the United Soccer Coaches All-America Second Team once again.

As a junior in 2019, Rodriguez scored three goals and tallied seven assists in 20 games, and she anchored a defense that posted 10 shutouts and allowed just 18 goals in 15 games.

Rodriguez' play helped OSU capture the 2019 Big 12 regular season championship and earn a No. 3 national seed in the NCAA Women's Soccer Championship, where it advanced to the second round.

A member of Mexico's National Team, Rodriguez was a unanimous selection to the All-Big 12 First Team, and she was named to the TopDrawerSoccer.com Postseason Women's National Top 100, coming in at No. 60 in the rankings.

In 2020-21, Rodriguez tallied a goal and five assists in 16 games while helping OSU record nine shutouts en route to the third NCAA Tournament Sweet 16 appearance in program history.

Rodriguez also moved into the top 10 on OSU's all-time assists chart in 20-21; she is tied for seventh with 21 career assists.

GRACE YOCHUM

MIDFIELDER
Houston, Texas

- 2022 United Soccer Coaches Second Team

Grace Yochum became the sixth All-American in OSU soccer history in 2022 when she was named to the United Soccer Coaches All-America Second Team.

Yochum capped her career in 2022 by tallying a team-high eight goals, including five game winners, in 17 games and setting program scoring records along the way.

Over her five-year career, Yochum established herself as the most prolific scorer in Oklahoma State soccer history during her five-year career. In her final season, she set Cowgirl Soccer records for career goals with 41 and also career points with 91; both of those records had stood since 2008. Yochum set the goals record with a pair of scores against Stephen F. Austin and eclipsed the points mark with her goal vs. Iowa State.

Yochum played 86 games in her career and also finished with 21 game-winning goals, including leading the NCAA in that category in 2021 when she netted a career-high 12 goals, eight of those game winners. She collected All-Big 12 honors four times in her career, one of only six Cowgirls to ever earn that status, and she is one of four OSU players to be named All-Big 12 First Team three times.

In January 2023, Yochum became the second-highest NWSL Draft pick from OSU when she was selected in the second round with the 14th overall pick by the Chicago Red Stars.

NATIONAL TEAMS

A number of Oklahoma State standouts have gone on to represent their respective countries as members of national teams, including three Cowgirls — AD Franch, Courtney Dike and Coumba Sow — who have been on FIFA Women's World Cup rosters.

Franch has been a member of the United States Women's National Team since 2012 and earned her first-career cap in 2019 at the SheBelieves Cup. The former Cowgirl All-American was on the roster of the 2019 FIFA Women's World Cup champion U.S. squad and won a bronze medal at the 2020 Tokyo Olympics, where she started in goal in the U.S.'s medal game against Australia.

Dike was the first-ever Oklahoma State player to appear in the World Cup when she earned two caps for Nigeria in 2015, including starting against the eventual champion United States team. Dike was a four-time All-Big 12 Conference forward for the Cowgirls from 2013-16.

Sow was a starting midfielder for the Switzerland National Team at the 2023 FIFA Women's World Cup. Sow was part of the OSU program in 2016 and 2017, scoring three goals in 23 games for the Cowgirls' 2017 Big 12 Conference championship squad.

Other Cowgirls who have earned national team status include:

Former Cowgirl All-American Kim Rodriguez received her first call up to the Mexico National Team in Feb. 2019; she started for Mexico at the 2019 Cyprus Women's Cup and again in the 2019 Pan American Games in Peru.

Also Cowgirls competing for their respective national teams include Kathrin Lehmann (Switzerland), Peyton Vincze (Wales) and Grace Neville (New Zealand).

COWGIRLS IN THE PROS

In January 2013, AD Franch became Oklahoma State's highest-ever professional draft pick when the Cowgirls' All-American goalie was selected in the first round of the National Women's Soccer League with the sixth overall pick by the Western New York Flash. In 2012, Melinda Mercado was a third-round draft choice of the Boston Breakers in the WPS Draft, while Kasey Langdon was a sixth-round pick of the Atlanta Beat in the 2010 WPS Draft. Franch and Mercado both spent time in the NWSL in its inaugural season in 2013.

Joining the list of Cowgirls in the professional ranks in 2017 was former OSU All-Big 12 midfielder Allie Stephenson, who competed for IK Myran Damer in Finland, while Anna Beffer signed with France's AS Pierrots Vauban in 2018. Coumba Sow has played professionally in her native Switzerland and is now a member of Paris FC Féminines, while Laurene Tresfield is also playing professionally in France with HAC Féminines. Another international Cowgirl, Grace Neville, plays for London City.

In 2020, Jaci Jones spent time with the NWSL's Houston Dash. Following the 2021 season, Charmé Morgan was a second-round draft pick (No. 16 overall) of the NWSL's Louisville Racing FC. Kim Rodriguez and Gabriella Coleman also joined the pro ranks; Rodriguez plays for Mexico City's Club América Femenil and Coleman began her career with Handknattleiksfélag Kópavogs in Iceland and is now a member of Perth Glory FC in Australia.

In January 2023, OSU All-American Grace Yochum became the program's second-highest NWSL Draft pick when she was selected in the second round with the 14th-overall pick by the Chicago Red Stars.

During her rookie season in 2013, Franch started every game in goal and led the Flash to the NWSL regular season title, and they advanced to the championship game of the playoffs. She was named to the NWSL Second XI team and finished second in the league's Rookie of the Year and Goalkeeper of the Year voting after recording six shutouts and a league-leading 82 saves.

Franch, who also spent a year playing in Norway for Avaldsnes, has established herself as one of the NWSL's top goalies over the last decade. She was named the NWSL Goalkeeper of the Year and was a NWSL Best XI selection in both 2017 and 2018, setting a league record with 11 shutouts and helping lead the Thorns to the NWSL title in 2017. She currently stars for the Kansas City Current.

In March 2023, former OSU All-American Yolanda Odenyo joined the staff of the NWSL's Orlando Pride as an assistant coach.

NEAL PATTERSON STADIUM

Neal Patterson Stadium was officially dedicated on Aug. 19, 2018, prior to the Oklahoma State-Oklahoma match. The Cowgirls were 2-1 victors in the contest as an OSU women's soccer record crowd of 4,122 fans was in attendance. Kim Rodriguez scored the first-ever goal in the stadium when she converted a penalty kick in the 15th minute.

A $20 million project, Neal Patterson Stadium is a showcase for Cowgirl Soccer and one of the top soccer facilities in the collegiate ranks. It is named for its major benefactor and Oklahoma State alumnus, the late Neal Patterson.

Patterson, who passed away during the summer of 2017, grew up near his family's farm in Manchester, Okla. He earned a bachelor's degree in finance and a master's degree in business from Oklahoma State. He was one of five entrepreneurs who founded Sporting Club, which in 2006 purchased the Sporting KC Major League Soccer franchise. He was also chairman of the board and chief executive officer of Cerner Corporation, a company he co-founded with two colleagues in 1979. Today, Cerner is the world's largest publicly traded health information technology company with $4.8 billion in revenues in 2016 and approximately 24,000 associates worldwide. FORTUNE recently named Cerner one of the world's most admired companies.

"When you provide an education to someone with intelligence, work ethic, determination and big dreams, you occasionally create a force that changes the world," said Mike Holder, OSU's Director of Athletics. "Neal Patterson did that in the health care industry, and our goal is to use his investment in OSU soccer to attract bright, determined, big dreamers from around the world to our soccer team.

"We have been blessed to have an abundance of successful and generous people that have helped transform our athletic department," he added. "Our hope is that Neal's gift will motivate someone else to make a difference on our campus. His name on the stadium is our way of saying thank you and inspiring that next great donor."

The new facility includes club seats, plaza and upper bowl gathering areas and a north end zone terrace area and seating designed specifically for OSU students. Team facilities include locker rooms, meeting areas, kitchen facilities, sports medicine areas and equipment rooms. The stadium can accommodate 2,500 fans in permanent seats.

The west side of the stadium includes 346 reserved chairback seats and 810 reserved bleacher-back seats. There are 552 general admission seats.

The north end zone includes bleacher seating for more than 500 and includes a patio, a building and a concourse area that can host more than 125 for gatherings.

Atop the west side of the stadium are two club levels with a capacity of 80 and two suites with a capacity of 20 guests each. A new press box sits atop the stadium. The west side is anchored by a club area at field level that can host more than 100 and serve as a player lounge and nutrition area on non-game days.

Other unique aspects of Patterson Stadium include:

- A large roof that covers much of the seating areas, providing shade and a soccer-specific feel like that in many international venues;
- Home and visitor bench areas with chairback seating built into the stadium;
- A 26 feet by 40 feet high-definition video scoreboard in the southeast corner of the facility.

"A facility of this magnitude is a game changer for our program," said OSU head soccer coach Colin Carmichael. "It helps the current student-athletes to be in one of the nicest facilities in the country. Our fans are going to have a much better game day experience. We want it to be a real family atmosphere.

"We have always had a good student following," he added. "But we want to enhance their experience, which will make for a better atmosphere. And of course this will affect recruiting.

"Every recruit wants to know that how serious a school is about their sport. This is a huge statement from our administration."

CAMPUS OF CHAMPIONS

Oklahoma State University

A land-grant institution with more than 35,000 students across a five-campus system, we've graduated more than 264,000 students to serve the state of Oklahoma, the nation and the world.

A bold aspiration

Oklahoma State University intends to become the nation's preeminent Land-Grant university

From their founding in the nineteenth century, Land-Grant universities have carried a distinctly American charge captured in the words of the Morrill Act of 1862:

"to promote the liberal and practical education of the industrial classes in the several pursuits and professions in life."

Through teaching, research and Extension, the Land-Grant institutions steward a timeless responsibility: to raise successive generations of servant-leaders; to engage as vital members of their communities; to bring research and new knowledge to bear to prepare students for the world they will enter; and to extend critical knowledge and expertise to meet society's most pressing problems — the "Grand Challenges" facing civilization.

Three Pillars

Instruction
OSU provides the highest quality education in a variety of different majors using the latest teaching methods.

Research
OSU is creating the next generation of scientists, thinkers and scholars through its tradition of research excellence.

Extension
OSU's Cooperative Extension connects people across the nation and world with the latest research and practical solutions.

Core Values

Community
Foster a strong sense of community based on shared governance among student, faculty, staff and administration.

Diversity
Respect and value the diversity of individuals, beliefs and opinions.

Service
Serving others is a noble and worthy endeavor and distinguishing feature of a land-grant institution.

Steward of Resources
Dedicated to the efficient and effective use of resources and sustainability.

Excellence
Seek excellence in all endeavors and commitment to continuous improvement.

Integrity
Commitment to the principles of truth and honesty.

Intellectual Freedom
Believe in ethical and scholarly questioning that respects the rights of all to freely pursue knowledge.

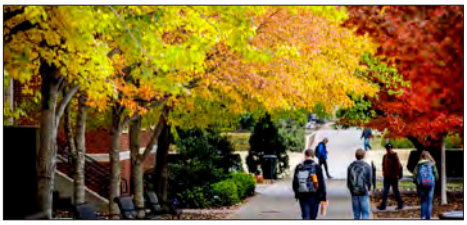
Hailing from all 50 states and more than 100 countries, we are united by the Cowboy Code.

- We end the day knowing we gave it everything we had.
- We dream as big as the sky.
- We know challenges come with pain, but pain will not win.
- We have a passion to do what's right, even when it's hard.
- We stand for what matters, even if we stand alone.
- We finish what we start.
- Being a Cowboy isn't in our clothes, it's in our character.

- Inspired by James P. Owen's 2004 book "Cowboy Ethics: What Wall Street Can Learn from The Code of the West."



Oklahoma State University, in compliance with Title VI and VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, Executive Order 11246 as amended, and Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (Higher Education Act), the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990, and other federal and state laws and regulations, does not discriminate on the basis of age, race, color, religion, sex, sexual orientation, genetic information, gender identity or expression, national origin, disability, protected veteran status, or other protected category, in any of its policies, practices or procedures. This provision includes, but is not limited to admissions, employment, financial aid, and educational services. OSU is a VEVRAA Federal Contractor and desires priority referrals of protected veterans for its openings. OSU will not discharge or in any other manner discriminate against employees or applicants because they have inquired about, discussed, or disclosed their own pay or the pay of another employee or applicant. However, employees who have access to the compensation information of other employees or applicants as a part of their essential job functions cannot disclose the pay of other employees or applicants to individuals who do not otherwise have access to compensation information, unless the disclosure is (a) in response to a formal complaint or charge, (b) in furtherance of an investigation, proceeding, hearing, or action, including an investigation conducted by the employer, or (c) consistent with the contractor's legal duty to furnish information. The Director of Equal Opportunity, 408 Whitehurst, OSU, Stillwater, OK 74078-1035; Phone 405-744-5371; email: eeo@okstate.edu has been designated to handle inquiries regarding non-discrimination policies: Director of Equal Opportunity. Any person (student, faculty, or staff) who believes that discriminatory practices have been engaged in based on gender may discuss his or her concerns and file informal or formal complaints of possible violations of Title IX with OSU's Title IX Coordinator 405-744-9154." See http://eeo.okstate.edu/title-ix for more information.

University President Dr. Kayse Shrum

Dr. Kayse Shrum

University President
Third Year | OSU College of Osteopathic Medicine

On April 2, 2021, the OSU/A&M Board of Regents selected Dr. Kayse Shrum as the 19th president of Oklahoma State University. A native Oklahoman, President Shrum earned her doctor of osteopathic medicine degree from the OSU College of Osteopathic Medicine and has completed executive leadership and management training programs at Harvard University and Stanford University.

In addition to navigating the realignment of the Big 12 conference in her first few months, Dr. Shrum also launched the system-wide strategy process to guide the future of the university. The strategy was unveiled in fall 2022. It provides the roadmap forOSU to become the nation's preeminent land-grant university, creating and discovering solutions to societal problems, providing students with a world-class education and sending them into the world after graduation well-equipped to handle the challenges before them.

During her first year as president of the Oklahoma State University system, Dr. Shrum initiated the development of an OSU energy institute. The Harold Hamm Foundation and Continental Resources contributed a combined $50 million gift creating the Hamm Institute for American Energy at Oklahoma State University. The Hamm Institute's mission is to educate the next generation of energy leaders — in Oklahoma, the United States and from around the world — cementing Oklahoma's legacy as a global energy leader.

Dr. Shrum also celebrated the launch of the new Oklahoma Aerospace Institute for Research and Education (OAIRE), which brings together OSU's historic strength in aerospace engineering, flight training and aeronautics. This university-level institute brings the state's aerospace innovation economy together under one umbrella. OAIRE will support ongoing and future partnerships between university, commercial, military and government agencies, becoming a valuable resource for developing Oklahoma's aerospace ecosystem. That includes generating high-tech jobs and cutting-edge research that brings commercial enterprise and military sustainment support to the state.

In December 2022, the university launched the Human Performance and Nutrition Research Institute (HPNRI). The institute's mission is to discover, develop and deliver scientific knowledge to empower people of all abilities to realize their optimal performance. That includes developing preventative therapeutic strategies to combat obesity and chronic diseases. By studying student-athletes, the institute aims to explore new ideas and methods aimed at developing interventions and treatments to help Oklahomans adopt healthier lifestyle behaviors for the purpose of making a lasting and positive impact on Oklahomans' health.

Before being named president of the OSU system, Dr. Shrum was named president of OSU Center for Health Sciences (OSU-CHS) in 2013, becoming the youngest and first female president and dean of a medical school in the state of Oklahoma. Dr. Shrum holds the George Kaiser Family Foundation Chair in Medical Excellence and Service and the Saint Francis Health System Endowed Chair of Pediatrics.

Under her leadership, OSU-CHS experienced unprecedented growth. Student enrollment more than doubled as new academic programs were established to meet the health care workforce needs of Oklahoma. A strong supporter of collaborative partnerships, Dr. Shrum worked with Cherokee Nation Principal Chief Bill John Baker and his administration to establish the nation's first tribally affiliated medical school, the OSU College of Osteopathic Medicine at the Cherokee Nation, which opened in fall 2020. She also helped secure a landmark investment from Purdue Pharma in the amount of $197.5 million to create a center of excellence in addiction treatment and studies to address the opioid addiction epidemic — the National Center for Wellness and Recovery.

Dr. Shrum's leadership, professional and civic contributions have led to notable recognition and rewards. Her honors include:

- 2022 Oklahoma Women's Hall of Fame induction
- 2022 Oklahoma Osteopathic Association DO of the Decade
- 2020 Journal Record Health Care Hero
- 2020 Osteopathic Founders Foundation Outstanding Physician Award
- 2020 Becker's Hospital Review "100 Academic Medical Center CEOs to Know"
- 2019 Connors State College Alumni Hall of Fame induction
- 2019 Tulsa Osteopathic Medical Society Osteopathic Impact Award
- 2019 Journal Record's 2019 Woman of Year Award
- 2018 Newsmaker Award by the Association for Women in Communications Tulsa Chapter
- 2014 Oklahoma Osteopathic Association's Outstanding & Distinguished Service Award
- 2013 Connors State College Athletics Hall of Fame induction
- 2012 Tulsa Mayor's Commission on the Status of Women's Pinnacle Award for Health

Athletic Director Chad Weiberg

Chad Weiberg

Athletics Director
Third Year | Oklahoma State, 1994

Chad Weiberg assumed the role of Oklahoma State Vice President and Athletic Director in July of 2021 after having spent the previous four years serving as OSU's Deputy Athletic Director. In this role, Weiberg serves on President Kayse Shrum's leadership team that helps to advance Oklahoma State's land grant mission and President Shrum's strategic initiatives for the institution.

The timing of his promotion to athletic director lined up with seismic shifts in the national intercollegiate athletics landscape. Realignment within the Big 12 Conference and the emergence of Name, Image and Likeness in college sports both occurred within a month of Weiberg's start date. Later in his first year came the NCAA Constitutional Convention and subsequent Transformation Committee plus further realignment on the national level. Those foundational changes brought urgent new action items to his list of responsibilities to position OSU for continued success in an entirely new landscape.

In 2023-24, he serves as chair of the Big 12 Athletic Directors and is on the College Football Playoff Future Format Athletic Directors Focus Group.

During Chad Weiberg's first two years as OSU Athletic Director...

- He created a name, image and likeness department with a dedicated full-time director and assistant director.
- OSU Athletics partnered with the Spears School of Business to create the innovative Brand Squad, which pairs the best and brightest students in OSU's famed Spears School of Business with student-athletes for the purpose of creating a personal brand and managing NIL opportunities, as well as coordinating with supporters establishing new collectives to provide NIL opportunities for OSU student-athletes.
- OSU Athletics created the POSSE STAR Fund to provide student-athletes financial rewards for achieving academic success in accordance with the Supreme Court ruling on Alston vs. NCAA.
- OSU Athletics launched the OSU Athletics Vision Plan, which is highlighted by a new Human Performance and Innovation Complex and football center, upgrades to Boone Pickens Stadium and entirely new competition facilities for softball and indoor track and field, practice facilities for wrestling and men's and women's basketball and upgrades to Karsten Creek Golf Course, the Pedigo-Hull Equestrian Center and to Gallagher-Iba Arena.
- He created a student-athlete leadership and professional development program with a dedicated full-time director and assistant director to help best position student-athletes for success beyond sports.
- He formed a partnership with Sport and Story to create OSU's own streaming service, OSU Max.
- He hired Jacie Hoyt as women's basketball head coach. In her first season, Hoyt led one of the nation's largest year-over-year improvements.
- The Cowgirl equestrian team won the first women's team national championship in Oklahoma State history.
- OSU hosted NCAA Championships for men's and women's cross country and wrestling and will host the NCAA Men's and Women's Tennis Championships in 2024.

As OSU's Deputy Athletic Director, Weiberg was the chief operating officer, second-in-command and responsible for the day-to-day operations of the athletics department. He served as Athletic Director Mike Holder's administrative liaison for football and men's basketball and was responsible for football scheduling.

During his time as Deputy AD, he played a significant role in successfully navigating OSU Athletics through the COVID pandemic. Notably, he developed a partnership with the Oklahoma State University Center for Health Sciences that helped produce the planning and resources to keep Cowboy and Cowgirl student-athletes healthy, safe and ready for competition.

Weiberg was a key figure in several important initiatives that benefitted student-athletes and fans alike. A little more than one year after Weiberg's arrival, OSU added a director of counseling and sport psychology position within the athletic department to better serve the mental health of student-athletes.

He also played a key part in improving OSU's gameday experience. Highlights include the addition of one of the largest video boards at a college-only football stadium, the addition of alcohol sales at OSU athletic venues and expanded concession offerings.

Weiberg is a 1994 OSU graduate with a bachelor of business administration degree. He earned a master's in business administration from OSU in 2002. After earning his undergraduate degree, he served as the director of corporate sales and donor relations for OSU Athletics until 1999. He served as senior director of field operations for the OSU Alumni Association from 1999-2002 before becoming the director of development for the OSU Foundation/College of Business Administration from 2002-03. He held a similar role for OSU Athletics from 2003-04 before moving to Kansas State.

At K-State, Weiberg served the KSU Foundation as Director of Corporate Relations for a year before becoming the Director of Major Gifts for K-State Athletics in 2005. Weiberg assumed the lead role for K-State Athletics' Ahearn Fund in 2009 and, for his team's efforts, was recognized as the National Fundraiser of the Year by the National Association of Athletic Development Directors in 2014. Weiberg was the Senior Associate Athletic Director for Development when he left K-State in 2015 to become Deputy Director of Athletics at Texas Tech University, a role in which he served for two years before returning to his alma mater in 2017.

College athletics have played a large role in Weiberg's life from an early age. His father, Mick, and brother, Brett were both college basketball head coaches and his brother, Jared, played basketball at OSU under Eddie Sutton for a year before moving into the role of team manager. Weiberg's uncle, Kevin, served as commissioner of the Big 12.

Weiberg and his wife, Jodi, have two children, Ella and Grant.

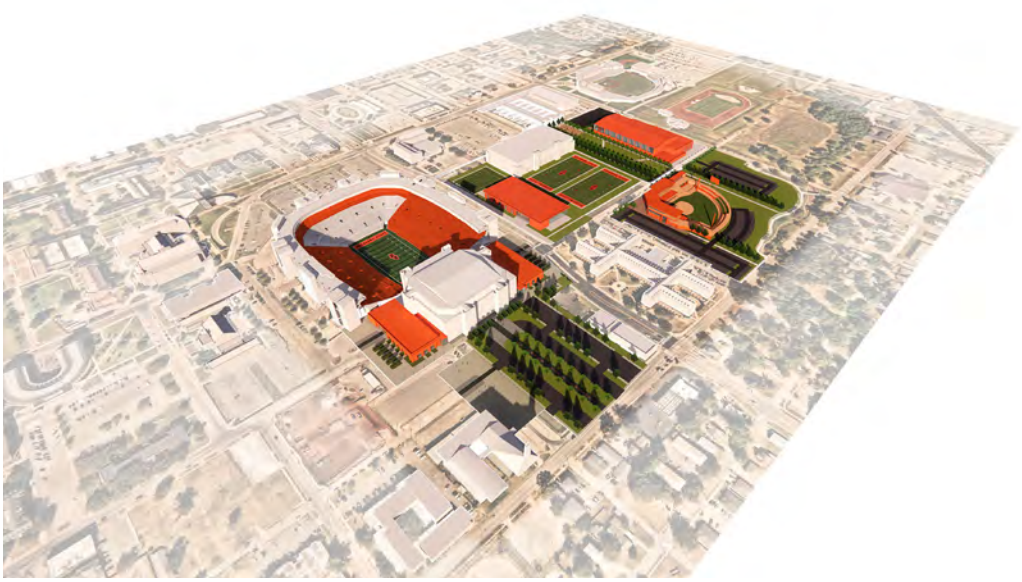
OSU Athletics Vision Plan

Looking into the Future

Oklahoma State is strengthening its position within the national landscape of college athletics with the unveiling of the athletics facilities vision plan announced by Athletic Director Chad Weiberg.

The plan focuses on providing for the success of the student-athletes, improving the fan experience, and bolstering the University's ability to attract student-athletes across all programs through the creation of a unified and connected athletic village unrivaled in college sports.

Included in the plan are a new football operations center, a new wrestling training facility, a new softball stadium, an indoor track, a new training center for basketball, upgrades to the Pedigo-Hull Equestrian Center and to Karsten Creek Golf Course and repurposed areas in the west end zone of Boone Pickens Stadium and Gallagher-Iba Arena for student-athlete services that include a new academics center and spaces for mental health, leadership and career development.



The athletics vision plan comes at an estimated cost of approximately $325 million. The implementation and order of construction will be determined as funding becomes available for each individual element.

"This is a time of conference realignment and unprecedented transformation in college athletics," Weiberg said. "With a history that includes 52 NCAA titles, for us to continue to achieve championship results, now is not the time to pause or rest on past accomplishments, but to honor those accomplishments by pushing forward and building upon what has been started. This vision plan provides a road map for the next phase of an athletics village that will be unrivaled in collegiate sports."

The plan is in its conceptual stages.

OSU Athletics Vision Plan

Human Performance Innovation Complex and Football Center

In December of 2022, Oklahoma State University announced its new Human Performance and Nutrition Research Institute with the goal of impacting every community in Oklahoma.

Due to available space and to maximize efficiencies, the institute headquarters will share a roof with the new operations home of Cowboy Football and will be located immediately adjacent to the existing practice fields and the Sherman E. Smith Training Center.

Sharing the same footprint will maximize efficiencies of key elements of the Human Performance And Nutrition Research Institute and Cowboy Football.

Vacated space in the west end zone of Boone Pickens Stadium creates tremendous benefits for student-athletes in every sport and accommodates an athletic department that has grown in recent years to include new areas dedicated to student-athlete success, mental and physical wellness, leadership and professional development.

While the institute itself is funded by the university, the Cowboy Football program will have its own space within the building paid for by athletics funds and private donations.

The 2009 upgrades to Boone Pickens Stadium played a significant role in OSU's rise to college football prominence. It also launched a larger mindset – one that Cowboy Football is truly capable of ascending to the highest level of the sport. This new facility provides an opportunity for OSU to reaffirm its commitment to being a national force moving forward.

Student-Athlete Success Center

The program areas currently occupied by OSU Football in the west end zone of Boone Pickens Stadium will be renovated following completion of Human Performance Innovation and Football Center. This includes both student-athlete and coaches/staff areas in the stadium which are currently located on the arena and lower club Levels.

The existing Student-Athlete Dining and Training Table would be expanded and renovated. Premium areas, including both club areas and seating and additional suites would be added, offering new seating types and amenities. Existing student-athlete support programs such as academic services, student athlete development and mental health could be relocated from Gallagher-Iba Arena to the stadium. Sports medicine, along with strength and conditioning could also be expanded and located in the west end zone, offering a central training and recovery space for all student-athletes.

In addition, offices and work areas for OSU Athletics creative teams, encompassing operations, graphic design, creative content and communications would be relocated to Boone Pickens Stadium.

Boone Pickens Stadium

Between 2003 and 2009, Lewis Field expanded and was officially rededicated as Boone Pickens Stadium on September 5, 2009. The expansion included adding nearly 4,000 club seats and 123 suites and connected the north and south by creating a continuous seating bowl in the west end zone. Over time the original seating on the north and south sides stadium bowl has required annual maintenance, resulting in increased repair costs, necessitating the replacement of the existing seating treads and risers. This need allowed OSU Athletics to plan the modernization and improvement of the fan experience in Boone Pickens Stadium.

Following the 2022 football season, work began on a two-year stadium project, beginning on the north side. That scope of work begins at the 200 level with the addition of a cross aisle to the existing seating treads and risers at the 300 level, expanding tread depths and new entrances. The project includes replacing benches, adding stadium seats in some sections, additional aisles, and adding handrails for safety. New intermediate aisles will be located between the existing entrances, reducing the amount of seating between aisles.

Following the 2023 football season, the south will be replaced in a similar fashion. The project includes new entrances at the lower 200 levels, replacing benches, adding stadium seats, additional aisles and adding handrails.

This renovation will keep the overall vision of Boone Pickens Stadium intact, marrying the north, west and south seating sections, and maintaining the existing 100, 200 and 300 level seating bowl levels.

OSU Athletics Vision Plan

Softball Stadium

The plan includes a new softball facility partially located on the former site of Allie P. Reynolds Stadium. The new home of Cowgirl Softball will provide modern amenities suitable for a premier collegiate softball program and will include championship caliber player-development areas. In addition, typical chairback seating, tailgating corrals, and family friendly areas to enhance the fan experience are planned.

Following the demolition of Allie P. Reynolds Stadium, the project will also create opportunities for additional parking for on-campus residents.

Indoor Track and Field

The men's and women's track and field programs support over 100 student-athletes. These athletes require year-round training and competition space. The vision plan proposes an indoor track and field facility south of the existing outdoor track and field complex. The proposed site is bordered by McElroy Road to the north, the Sherman E. Smith Training Center to the south, the Michael and Anne Greenwood Tennis Center to the west, and North Knoblock Street to the east.

This parcel of land is ideally sized for a full indoor track program. It will include a 200 meter banked track, indoor field event space, spectator seating, athletic training rooms, team meeting/theater spaces, locker rooms, player lounges, and offices for coaching staff.

In addition to strengthening training and development for the track and field programs, this new facility will act as a dynamic new recruiting tool for an already nationally prominent program.

Wrestling Practice Facility

Cowboy Wrestling is the most successful program in the history of the NCAA, regardless of sport. Entering the 2022-23 academic year, Oklahoma State wrestling had won 34 team national championships, 143 individual NCAA championships and had 475 All-Americans. The plan proposes an addition to the existing facility, which would support the ongoing success of OSU Wrestling.

While the program recently received an upgrade to its locker room, additional space is needed to sustain the success of the program.

This addition will increase the size of the wrestling room, allowing for additional mat space and championship-level team amenities. While the team will always compete inside the famous Gallagher-Iba Arena, the training facility will feature a dedicated space for spectators that will enhance recruiting and donor visits. This training facility will also house office and meeting spaces for the coaching staff.

OSU Athletics Vision Plan

Basketball Practice Facility

OSU's basketball programs have a rich history of success. Since the Cowboys' first game in 1908, OSU has won two national championships and appeared in six Final Fours. In the Big 12, only Kansas exceeds those totals. With 17 postseason appearances and three conference championships, the Cowgirls are continuing to build on an already-established tradition.

While having the benefit of utilizing the game court and backdrop of Gallagher-Iba Arena for practice can be an advantage for both programs, at times they are displaced during other athletic and campus events. A new practice facility is essential in helping both basketball programs continue to recruit, develop and train student-athletes to compete for championships.

The vision plan proposes an addition on the south side of the arena featuring two practice courts and other championship-caliber training spaces.

Pedigo-Hull Equestrian Center

Building off the historic 2021-22 season in which the program captured its eighth Big 12 Conference title and its first overall NCEA national championship, several updates to Pedigo-Hull Equestrian Center are planned.

Similar in size and scope to the Atherton Family Arena, an additional covered arena will be added to the Pedigo-Hull Equestrian Center.

Currently the primary practice arena, the Atherton Family Arena is a 135x270 square foot covered arena. The team also uses the Totusek Indoor Arena, a 100x200 foot climate-controlled facility. The Pedigo-Hull Equestrian Center consists of a saddling barn that includes coaches' offices, locker rooms, a tack room and an athletic training satellite office. It also has a 24-stall horse barn with outdoor runs and several paddocks and pastures. A new multi-purpose team building that includes a team lounge with study area and a fueling station was completed in 2021.

Karsten Creek Golf Course

Opened in 1994, Karsten Creek Golf Course was quickly named the "Best New Course" in the country by Golf Digest. The undulating fairways and challenging bunkers were originally created by renowned golf course designer Tom Fazio. Complementing the course are the clubhouse, three multi-level guest lodges, and a practice and teaching facility. While the course and related amenities have stood the test of time, renovations are needed to improve the facilities infrastructure, create a more challenging course, and enhance the skills of the student-athlete.

Course enhancement will include new irrigation, drainage, fairways, cart paths, and greens. Bunkers and tee boxes will be adjusted to increase the difficulty of play and advance the skills of the golfers. The practice facility will also be renovated to improve the tee boxes, landing zones, short game area and practice putting greens.

Originally constructed in 1997, the indoor practice facility will be upgraded to include state-of-the-art equipment.

Gallagher-Iba Arena Welcome Plaza

Since 1938, Gallagher-Iba Arena has been known as one of the great venues in collegiate athletics. Over time, however, the original east facade of the building has lost its unique prominence as the main gateway of the venue. This project seeks to revive this entrance, creating the welcome that OSU fans and athletes deserve. The plan also proposes adding premium parking and tailgating experiences to enhance the fan experience from the moment they arrive for an event.

The proposed Gallagher-Iba Welcome Plaza parking expansion will create approximately 250 new parking spaces nestled in a park-like setting.

In addition to creating parking, public plaza and walkway, fans will experience an arrival sequence similar to that of Boone Pickens Stadium. With new fan-focused offerings, OSU will have new opportunities to generate revenue.

6.	52	Oklahoma State		36	Oklahoma
7.	50	Arkansas

Very few athletic departments produce the kind of consistent success found at Oklahoma State. OSU has won 52 NCAA team championships - a mark that ranks sixth among all Division I schools.

OSU boasts NCAA team championships in five different sports – wrestling (34 titles), men's golf (11 titles), men's cross country (four titles), men's basketball (two titles) and baseball (one title). Additionally, OSU football and equestrian have been recognized as national champions by other organizations.

That same success translates on the conference level, where Oklahoma State has amassed 334 team conference championships entering the 2023-24 academic year. A team-by-team look at OSU Athletics:

The All-Time Greats

The highest honor the Oklahoma State Athletic Department can bestow upon its former student-athletes, coaches and staff is induction into the OSU Athletics Hall of Honor. Inductees are immortalized with a permanent display on the concourse level of Gallagher-Iba Arena, outside the O-Club room on the arena's west side.

Learfield Directors' Cup

The Learfield Directors' Cup honors institutions and evaluates success in all sports, men's and women's. The Directors' Cup allows athletic departments to measure the success of each sports program evenly and does not weigh the success in one sport above the success in another.

Oklahoma State in the Learfield Directors' Cup

• OSU has finished in the top three in the Big 12 in eight of the last 10 years.
• Because Oklahoma State does not sponsor women's volleyball and does not get credit for its performance in equestrian, it has only 17 sports eligible for Learfield Directors' Cup scoring, while most others count points from 19 sports. Operating with a two-sport handicap, Oklahoma State has still finished in the top 25 nationally the last three years and has finished in the top three of the Big 12 each of the last five years.

Phillips 66 Bedlam Series

The Bedlam Series is calculated by straight wins and losses in head to head competition. In sports where there is no head to head matchup, the Big 12 Championship final standings are used.

While Oklahoma State and Oklahoma have been in competition for more than 100 years, the all-sports Bedlam Series did not come into existence until the 1999-2000 academic year. Oklahoma State leads the annual Bedlam Series, 12-11-1. OU controlled the early years of the Bedlam Series, but with Bedlam victories in eight of the last 10 years, OSU has since become the superior school in direct competition.

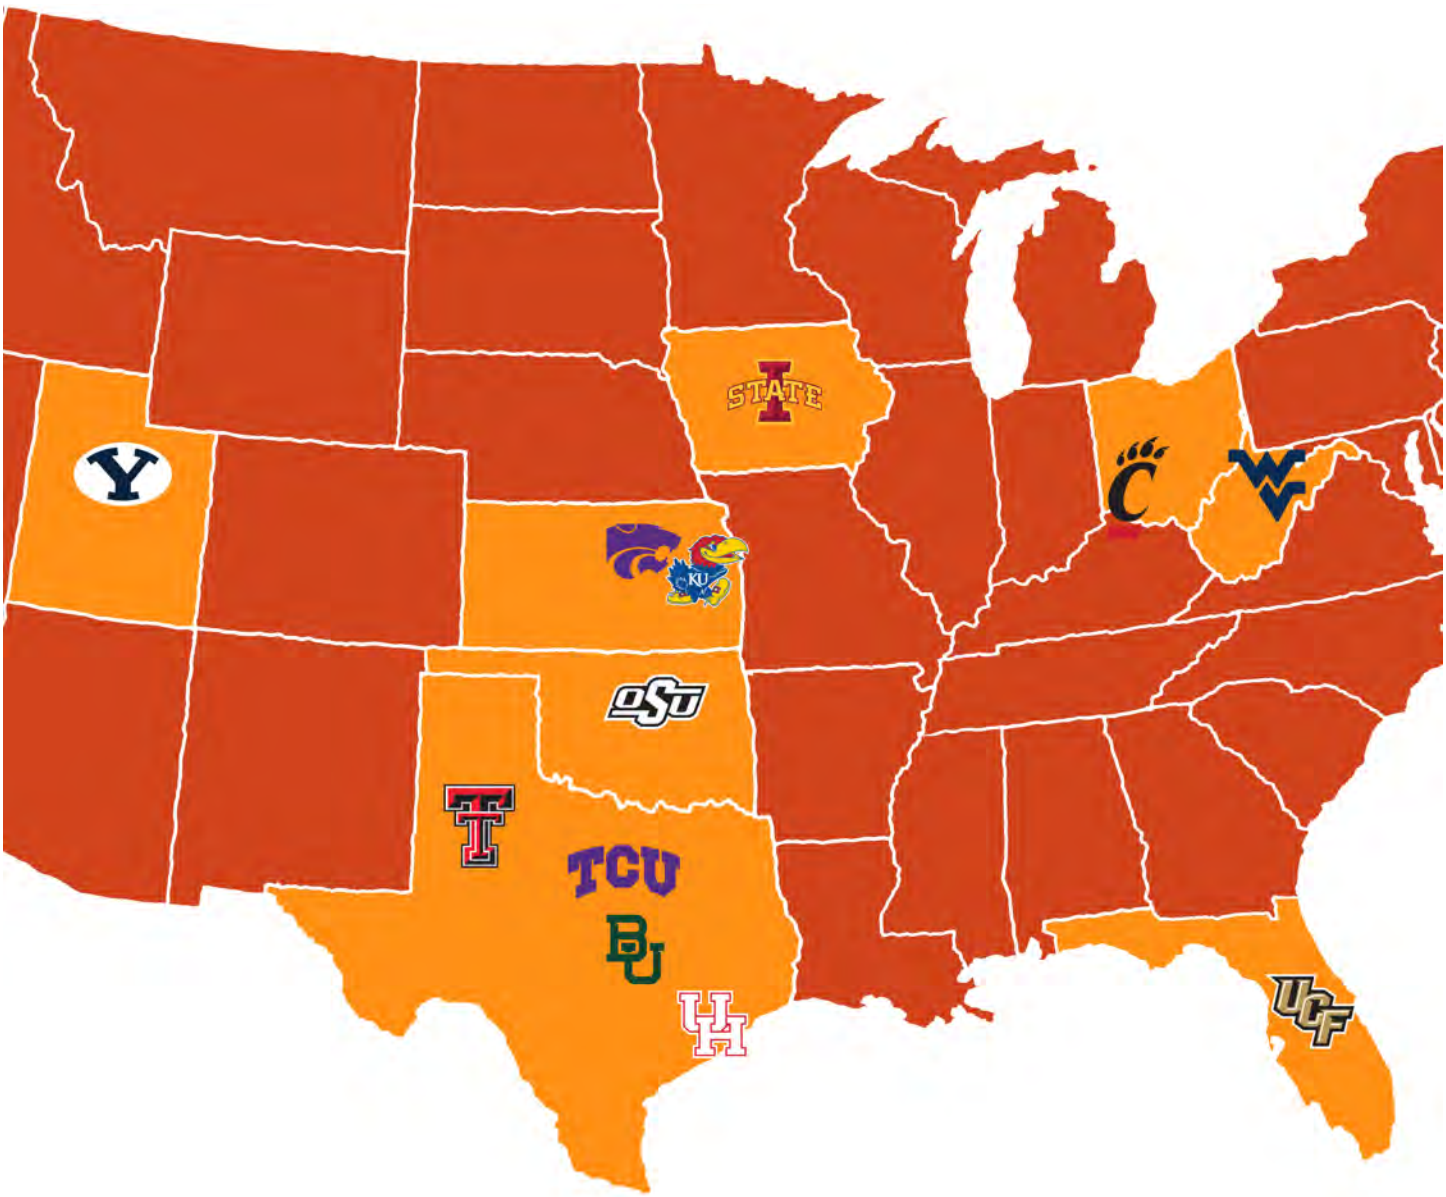
The Big 12 Conference



The Big 12 enters its 28th year as one of the nation's premier athletic conferences under the direction of Commissioner Brett Yormark. In his brief time at the helm, Yormark has elevated the Conference to new heights, placing an emphasis on marketing, brand building and storytelling that has resonated across the college athletics landscape.

The Big 12 is comprised of 14 institutions after welcoming BYU, UCF, Cincinnati and Houston on July 1, 2023. TCU and West Virginia were the first new additions since inception when they joined the league on July 1, 2012. Baylor, Iowa State, Kansas, Kansas State, Oklahoma, Oklahoma State, Texas and Texas Tech are legacy members.

In the first year of his tenure, Yormark executed a media rights deal with ESPN and Fox that will run through 2030-31 while leading a revamp of the Big 12 Football and Basketball Championships that resulted in revenue and digital engagement highs. He has taken an innovative approach to ensure the Conference resides in places it has never been before including creating the first Big

The Big 12 Conference

12 Business Advisory Board. Other highlights are executing a partnership with the National Football League to operate a conference-wide Pro Day, teaming up with New York City Parks Department for a summer activation at historic Rucker Park, and bringing celebrity talent such as Fat Joe, Ashanti, Shaq and DJ Khaled into the Big 12 marketing fold. "Big 12 Homecoming" will debut during the 2023 football season at the four new members' campuses with additional conference members featured in future seasons.

The 2022-23 academic year saw the Conference reach new frontiers with TCU becoming the first league school to reach the College Football Playoff National Championship game. Texas captured the NCAA Women's Volleyball title as well as the Women's Outdoor Track & Field national championship. Oklahoma earned its second straight NCAA Women's Gymnastics trophy and was crowned Women's College World Series champions for the third consecutive season. NCAA Championship runner-up finishes were notched by Oklahoma State Men's Cross Country, Texas Women's Swimming & Diving and UT Women's Indoor Track & Field. NCAA individual titles were collected by 23 student-athletes. The Big 12 tied its own record as the only league to place 70 percent of men's basketball teams in the NCAA Championship and 80 percent of football squads in bowl games in the same academic year, also accomplishing the feat in 2017-18.

The Big 12 office is located in Irving, Texas.

Key Highlights

- Home of 81 NCAA team titles and 742 individual national championships, as of July 1, 2023.
- Big 12 institutions create a league that encompasses eight states, three time zones and a combined population of over 79.3 million.
- The league sponsors 23 sports. Men's squads include baseball, basketball, cross country, football, golf, indoor track & field, outdoor track & field, swimming & diving, tennis and wrestling. Women's teams are fielded in basketball, cross country, equestrian, golf, gymnastics, indoor track & field, outdoor track & field, rowing, soccer, softball, swimming & diving, tennis and volleyball.
- The Conference currently conducts postseason championships for 22 of its 23 sports.
- Entering the 2023-24 academic year, the Big 12 has over 800 Academic All-America recipients.
- National academic accolades have always been strong in the Big 12. Charlie Kolar (Iowa State) was the recipient of the 2021 William V. Campbell Trophy, known as the Academic Heisman. He is the Big 12's fifth honoree since 2000. Since 1996, the Big 12 has 14 recipients of the NCAA Today's Top 10 award. This prestigious honor recognizes former student-athletes for their success on the fields and courts, in the classroom and in the community. In the last 13 seasons, 27 student-athletes were recipients of the NCAA Elite 90 award.
- Big 12 Commissioner Brett Yormark announced the formation of a Business Advisory Board to collaborate and help co-author the Conference's business strategy. The Board is comprised of some of the most successful leaders from a variety of fields – entertainment, finance, consumer brands, technology, media and more – that bring a wealth of knowledge and expertise in building global brands and dynamic businesses.

Name, Image and Likeness and POSSE STAR Fund

Oklahoma State is at the very forefront of the Name, Image and Likeness era of college sports and has the accolades to prove it.

OSU was the only Big 12 school recognized as a national finalist for Best Institutional Program at the inaugural NIL Awards at the INFLCR NIL Summit in 2022.

OSU's reputation as an NIL leader was earned not through hype, but through planning and then executing a strategy that placed maximizing NIL opportunities for student-athletes as the top priority.

A sampling of what NIL looks like at Oklahoma State:

Oklahoma State sprinter Tori Ortiz secured an NIL partnership with the WWE, among many others.

▶ OSU Athletics partnered with the renowned Spears School of Business to form the best-in-class Brand Squad – a group of business students who help connect OSU students with NIL partners at no cost to the students.

▶ OSU Athletics appointed Barry Hinson as Associate Athletic Director for Name, Image and Likeness – a new position geared specifically toward identifying and promoting NIL opportunities for its student-athletes.

▶ OSU partnered with industry leader Altius Sports to provide a national perspective and guidance to OSU's NIL programming.

▶ OSU partnered with the Brandr Group, One Team and Fanatics to create group licensing opportunities for its student-athletes, such as selling jerseys and other merchandise co-branded with official OSU marks and the student-athletes' name, image and likeness.

▶ OSU was an early adopter in partnering with INFLCR as a way of helping student-athletes with their individual brand-building efforts through the use of professional-quality photos and videos.

▶ OSU provides ongoing rules education to the nonprofit collective Pokes with a Purpose, which pairs OSU student-athletes with local charities in a way that enables the student-athletes to use their name, image and likeness to raise awareness and funds for causes of their choosing.

▶ OSU Athletics has a standing NIL committee that meets weekly to identify, discuss and pursue NIL opportunities and partnerships that benefit its student-athletes.

▶ While it is not directly tied to NIL, OSU launched the POSSE Star Fund to provide student-athletes with additional education-related benefits including direct financial support in the form of academic achievement awards, up to the legally established maximum of $5,980 per year. In order to receive the full allotment, student-athletes must go through financial planning and education provided through a partnership between OSU Athletics and Simmons Bank.

Student-Athlete Leadership and Professional Development

Every athletic department has a goal of winning championships, which is something we know a thing or two about there at Oklahoma State. A quick glance to the rafters in Gallagher-Iba Arena illustrates that.

But in addition to banners, developing the next generation of leaders away from the field is a priority for OSU Athletic Director Chad Weiberg, and he made that clear with a key hire just weeks after taking the reins last July.

Jawauna Harding re-joined the OSU Athletics family to head up our new Student-Athlete Leadership and Professional Development office, which is charged with building initiatives and programming focused on career development, leadership and experiential learning, as well as diversity and inclusion resources for the Cowboys and Cowgirls.

Her goal is to enhance the student-athlete experience and ensure that each student-athlete is ready to take the next step once their athletic career in Stillwater has come to a close. Through one-on-one meetings, guest speakers and special events, each student-athlete will learn resume building, career development tools and receive support in finding a job.

Conversely, Harding worked with the OSU Office of Career Services (HireOSUGrads.com) to teach businesses what they're getting when they hire a student-athlete.

"Oklahoma State student-athletes have sought-after skills and experiences that organizations need like teamwork, adaptability, and time management," said Harding. "Our student-athletes have experienced organizational leadership systems and have been immersed in them their entire lives. For us, it is important that companies see value in providing experiences, such as jobs and internships, to help our athletes transition their skills into a professional career."

To promote leadership inside the Athletics Center, Harding worked closely with OSU's Student-Athlete Advisory Committee, better known as SAAC, to encourage student-athlete-led projects that benefit the community and the players themselves. In April, Harding worked with SAAC members to distribute over $5,000 to Oklahoma teachers to help promote mental health and cultural diversity in the classroom.

"SAAC here at Oklahoma State represents the voice of the student-athlete," said Cowgirl soccer defender and SAAC rep Summer Chaffin. "It's about coming together with the administration to make the student-athlete experience better, and I'm glad I'm a part of it."

Harding spent more than 12 years working directly with OSU student-athletes and alumni through OSU's Office of Career Services. A current member of the athletic department Diversity and Inclusion Council, Harding serves as OSU Athletics' Diversity and Inclusion Designee to the Big 12 Conference and other national organizations and helps support OSU's vision for diversity, equity and inclusion.

Harding graduated from OSU in 2006 with a degree in journalism and broadcasting with an emphasis in public relations. After working for a nonprofit in Oklahoma City, Jawauna returned to her alma mater in October of 2008 and has been working to enrich the student-athlete experience ever since.

Mental Health and Wellness

Oklahoma State student-athletes have access to Dr. Trevor Richardson, who moved to the athletic department after more than 10 years on campus as part of OSU Counseling Services.

For Richardson, a two-time Oklahoma State graduate, being a mental health resource for OSU student-athletes is not just his profession, it's personal.

Richardson is part of a four-person team of trained mental health professionals at Oklahoma State dedicated to serving the needs of OSU student-athletes. Most schools have just one - if any - mental health professionals on full-time staff.

The team's approach to mental health is built through relationships and providing ongoing support.

"Around here, we like the old proverb of if you give a person a fish, you'll feed them once. If you teach them to fish, you'll feed them for a lifetime." Richardson said. "That's kind of how we approach mental health – we want to equip our people with knowledge and strategies they can use long into the future."

There is a misconception that seeking help in the area of mental health is a sign of weakness. Richardson said that is not the case.

"It's a sign of strength to ask for help in mental health because it shows you are secure in yourself," Richardson said. "This is about courage. People who take part in this process show courage and sometimes they view it as a sign of weakness because of what they've been conditioned to think. When you run from something that needs to be addressed, sooner or later it catches up with you. To sit down and take that big, scary, unpleasant thing on and talk with someone about it, that takes real courage."

Honoring Academic Success

Jojo Roberson (equestrian) and Tom Hutton (football) were honored as OSU's 2023 Scholar-Athletes of the Year.

Morgyn Wynne (softball) was honored as an OSU Senior of Significance in 2023.

The Oklahoma State Scholar-Athlete of the Year Award acknowledges the remarkable character and performance of one male and one female student-athlete. As the highest honor presented among OSU student-athletes, this award reflects exemplary performance in academic endeavors, athletic activities, and a commitment to community engagement. The award recognizes exceptional character of the student-athlete and a remarkable dedication to academic performance.

The award was initially presented in 1994 as the OSU Student-Athlete of the Year, but the title changed to OSU Scholar-Athlete of the Year in 2015.

A Night to Shine

Oklahoma State student-athletes walk the orange carpet at the Cowboy Choice Awards, which has become a highly-anticipated event on the annual calendar, in part because of the awards themselves and in part because it is an opportunity for student-athletes from all sports to come together off the field for a fun and enjoyable evening.

Fan Support

Oklahoma State has a passionate fanbase that appreciates success across all sports and as a result, OSU enjoys an overwhelming advantage when playing at home.

America's Friendliest College Town

Why yes, we really do believe Stillwater, Oklahoma is the place where smiles from strangers are abounding and hometown hospitality is a way of life. Our welcoming spirit is rooted in our Oklahoma history, the diversity forged by Oklahoma State University, and even community hardships that have spurred our strength and camaraderie.

We hope you soak up the vibrancy of our historic downtown, explore Oklahoma State University's stunning campus, dive into our Red Dirt music scene and discover America's Friendliest College Town!

Noting Stillwater

Located in Payne County in north central Oklahoma, Stillwater has easy access (less than one hour drive) to both Oklahoma City and Tulsa.

Stillwater Regional Airport features multiple daily flights to and from Dallas Fort Worth Airport.

The population of Stillwater is about 50,000 and with Oklahoma State University as its heart, it comes as no surprise that approximately 50 percent of Stillwater residents age 25 years or older have a bachelor's degree.

Average Climate

America's Greatest Homecoming

OSU's very first Homecoming was held as part of the Harvest Carnival in the fall of 1913, but it wasn't until seven years later that the OSU Alumni Association hosted its first official Homecoming celebration. On October 30, 1920, 90 Oklahoma A&M alumni returned to Stillwater for festivities including the Aggie football game plus a dance and a dinner hosted by Alumni Association President Monroe Otey.

Of the 90 alumni in attendance, 50 were from the Stillwater area and 40 were from out of state. It was also in the '20s the now-famous tradition of house decorations began when sororities started to decorate their doorways.

In 1930, the first ever Homecoming Parade, a mile long, made its way down Main Street. More than 17,000 alumni returned to Oklahoma A&M that year to renew old friendships and show their pride in the Orange and Black.

In 1942 and 1944, Homecoming was combined with Dads' and Mothers' days and sponsored by the YMCA, YWCA, Dads' and Mothers' Day Association and the Alumni Association. The combination was a result of World War II and impending gas rationing to occur. Even with the gas rationing and cutbacks on parade floats, decorations and visiting bands, the football game and reunion functions were still well attended.

Following the war in 1946, there was a record attendance of 20,000 alumni and the largest parade was held including more than 50 floats, six bands and other community entries. Over time, the size of the house decorations overtook those of parade floats. In 1966, vehicles were abandoned and onlookers tried a new experiment - they simply "walked around" to view the decorations. Three years later, house decorations began being judged and scored.

New events like the Sign Competition, Football Frenzy and Chili Cook-Off were added in recent decades. Since that time, the event has grown and today is recognized as "America's Greatest Homecoming Celebration," drawing more than 80,000 alumni back to campus each year.

CASE International (Council for Advancement and Support of Education) has recognized OSU's Homecoming as a Seal of Excellence recipient. This is the highest award given by CASE in the field of Alumni Relations. This prestigious award is given only to programs that serve as models for others. OSU was recognized for the widespread participation and outstanding organization of its Homecoming program.

Most recently, the Homecoming celebration has launched onto the world wide web with photo albums, video highlights and live streams of Walkaround and the Sea of Orange Parade.

In 2010, the OSU Alumni Association began fundraising for the $3 million Homecoming and Student Programs Endowment as part of the $1 billion Branding Success campaign. OSU is one of the only schools left in the nation with an event like Walkaround, and once fully funded, the endowment will ensure future generations of Cowboys will be able to experience "America's Greatest Homecoming Celebration" as we know it today.

OSU's Homecoming is presented by the OSU Alumni Association and is planned by the student-driven Homecoming Executive, Steering and Big committees. OSU's Homecoming is a longstanding, exciting and colorful tradition for both campus and community.

The Cowboys

Dating back to the 1890s, Oklahoma A&M sports teams had been referred to as Agriculturists or Aggies, the Farmers, and officially but unpopularly, the Tigers. But by 1924, Charles Saulsberry, sports editor of the Oklahoma City Times, and other writers who regularly covered college events, had begun to refer to Stillwater's teams as the A&M Cowboys. Reporters' constant search of colorful synonyms started sprinkling Cowpokes, Pokes, Waddies, Cowpunchers and Punchers in conversation. "Cowboys" had a Southwestern flavor and flair that fit like a favorite pair of boots.

The Athletic Council authorized athletics director Edward C. Gallagher to have 2,000 balloons printed, "Oklahoma Aggies—Ride 'Em Cowboy" for sale at football games in 1926.

Pistol Pete

(excerpt from text written by Lance Millis)

Around 1923, when Oklahoma A&M College was searching for a new mascot to replace its tiger (copied along with the school's orange and black colors, from university founders who hailed from Princeton), a group of students saw Frank Eaton leading the Armistice Day Parade. He was approached to see if he would be interested in being the model for the new mascot, and he agreed. A likeness was drawn and began to be used on sweatshirts, stickers, etc., and a tradition was born.

That caricature was the basis for what is used today as the official Oklahoma State University mascot. For 35 years, the crusty old cowboy was a living symbol of OSU, representing the colorful past of the area. As such, he would attend OSU athletic events, building dedications, etc., and sign autographs, pose for photographs and reminisce about the Old West with anyone who would listen.

To this day, his likeness is a visible reminder of the Old West to literally millions of people yearly as a symbol of colleges whose mascots pay homage to the cowboy. Each year, OSU students tryout for Pistol Pete. A panel of former "Petes" judge the tryouts and select the two best candidates based on an interview, a mime, and posing as mascot in different "game situations." The two who are selected split the approximately 500 appearances annually. These appearances include all athletic events, pep rallies, business openings, weddings, birthday parties, and public school events.

Frank Eaton - the original Pistol Pete

Frank Eaton - Before Pistol Pete

"My boy, may an old man's curse rest upon you, if you do not try to avenge your father...You must never stop until they are all accounted for!" These words, according to one of Eaton's many stories, were spoken by a family friend following the brutal murder of his father, and guided the formative years of Frank's life.

Born in 1860, in Hartford, Connecticut, Frank moved with his family to Kansas shortly after the close of the Civil War. When Frank was eight years old, his father, a former Union soldier, was shot and killed by a group of lawless former Confederates. Frank was a witness to the murder and each of the murderers' faces was imprinted in his memory.

After being challenged to avenge his father's death by Mose Beaman, (the family friend), Frank set out to learn how to handle guns. Mose gave him a gun and holster, and taught him how to handle and shoot guns. Frank quickly learned to "shoot a snake's head off with either hand". During the next few years, Frank's days were spent helping his mother with chores and practicing shooting. With each passing year, he became faster and more accurate with his guns.

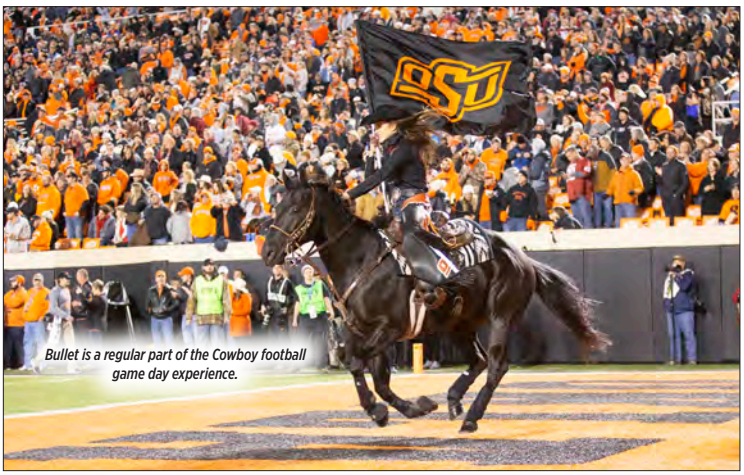
When Frank was 15, he learned of the location of one of his father's killers. After deciding it was almost time to set out on his mission, Frank wanted to make sure his shooting skills were good enough. He decided to visit Fort Gibson, a cavalry fort, to try to learn more about handling a gun. There he competed with the cavalry's best marksmen, beating them each time. After many competitions, the fort's commanding officer, Colonel Copinger gave Frank a marksmanship badge and a new name. From that day forward, Frank would be known as Pistol Pete.

Bullet

The Oklahoma State University Cowboys have many symbols of their western heritage, but none is more appropriate than their mascot, Bullet. The Spirit Rider program debuted in 1984 with the first few Spirit Riders providing their own horse to serve as mascot for the OSU Cowboys.

However, in 1988, Stars Parr Money was donated to the OSU Athletic Department to be used specifically as the mascot. Since that time, Bullet has delighted crowds with his traditional sprint across the football field following every Cowboy touchdown. The heart of the Cowboy Spirit Rider Program, Bullet is not only seen at Boone Pickens Stadium and other OSU football games, he's made appearances at local elementary schools, parades, rodeos and other special events, including the opening ceremonies of the Oklahoma State Special Olympics.

The tradition of the Spirit Rider can be attributed to the late Eddy Finley, who wanted to promote school spirit the "cowboy way," on horseback. Since that time, additional support has come for the Spirit Rider and Bullet, much of it due to Finley's hard work. A horse trailer, custom-tooled saddle and uniform dress for the Spirit Rider and ground crew have been donated to OSU. In honor of the Spirit Rider and its tradition, Jim Hamilton sculpted the Spirit Rider bronze statue that sits just south of the Greenwood Tennis Center.



Bullet is a regular part of the Cowboy football game day experience.
